Bentonite Lubrication plants & Autolubrication stations

For Sale & For Rent

We supply different types of bentonite mixing plants for use in both slurry circuits and pipelubrication.

We supply different types of bentonite mixing plants for use in both slurry circuits and pipelubrication. Also do we supply the autolubrication stations as per the request of the client.

The stations can be made compatible with already supplied stations but also can we supply a complete stand alone system that can be used with any pipejacking or microtunnelling system.

Optionally the autolubrication stations can be equipped with LED tunnelling lights so that there is no separate power supply needed for the tunnel lightning.
